

The weekly bird

No.2

Bird of the week! tui!

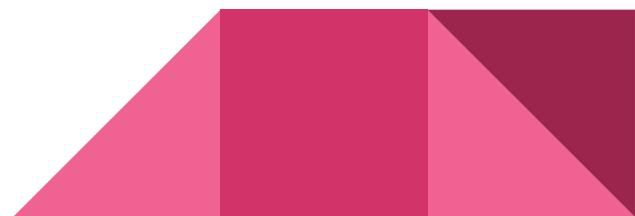

The tui is a beautiful bird with a outstanding voice. They love kowhai trees and you can tell if its a tui by its white neck feathers.

He manu
ataahua te tui,
he rawe tana
reo. He pai ki
a ratou te
rākau kowhai,
ka mohio koe
he tui ma tōna
poi mā i te
kakī.

Which one?

A tree has died to give me birth but I still shelter feathered. Really heavy colored earth, and that's the end.

You know Theo N's Jetpack 1.0, but guess what? It inspired Ryan Men. He decided to make, drum roll please... Jetpack 2.0!!!!!!

The image shows a screenshot of a game advertisement for "Jetpack 2.0 (The Sequel)". The game interface features a blue, grid-patterned tunnel with purple laser lines. A yellow star is visible on the floor. On the left side, there is a list of game statistics: "-0.25", "Star: boost 0.7", "Star: vspeed -8.5", "Star: fuel 205", "Star: score 4", and "BarrierStep -4". The text "DODGE LASERS! COLLECT BALLS!" is displayed in the center of the tunnel. To the right of the game view, there are sections for "Instructions" and "Notes and Credits". The "Instructions" section says: "Use Space to collect balls=fuel. Try to get 100 points! (P.S. dodge lasers.)". The "Notes and Credits" section says: "Theo made an inspiring game that made me want to make this." At the top right of the advertisement, there is a purple button that says "See inside".
